

Pixie Dust Possibilities

By Tristan RowLee on Friday, 8 January 2016 at 16:52

Pixie Dust Possibilities

- Window markers
- Tangrams
- Pattern blocks
- Balance and things to weigh
- Stacking pegs and boards
- Puzzles
- Foam blocks
- Ink pads and stamps (alphabet) or finger print fun
- Magna tiles
- Water beads
- Playdoh (add things for fun – TOOB of animals, sticks, rocks, etc)
- Chalk pastels (many free tutorials on hodgepodge.me)
- Beads and embroidery thread
- Pens and Zentangle book
- Yarn and knitting needles or looms
- Magnifying glass
- Pocket microscope
- Rock id kit
- Owl pellets
- Watercolors or watercolor pencils
- Toothpicks and mini marshmallows or gumdrops – building challenge
- Baking supplies for cookies
- Spirograph
- Rainbow loom and bands (tons of free tutorials online)
- Origami paper and books
- Dominoes (building challenge – how many can you topple?)
- Deck of cards (build a card house)
- Old magazines – cut out pictures and then use those as story prompts
- Thinking putty
- Balloons and book to learn how to make balloon animals
- Recorder and basic sheet music
- Harmonica
- Insta Snow
- Sensory tub with rice, beans, bulldozers or toys, measuring cups
- Bathing toys in infant tub or ice cream bucket
- Perler bead kit
- Fabric and the sewing machine (Sewing School is a good book for kids)
- Klutz has so many fun book kits. (we own most of them...a favorite Christmas gift)